GS Advanced Phase

Offline Advanced Program

During the GS Advanced Phase of five months, the whole syllabus of UPSC CSE will be covered in an holistic manner with the primary focus on mains. This phase will equip you with a consolidated topic-wise knowledge base which will take your preparation to the next level.

Offline Theme Based Classes

Classes will be focussed on theme based learning outcomes. These themes will be extracted based on the current events and UPSC exam pattern.

Weekly Current Affairs Classes

These classes will cover important topics from the mains and prelims perspective. Topics will be based on the news cycle of the previous week. You will also get access to monthly magazine and weekly current affairs documents in soft copy format.

Brainstorming Pointers Handouts

These handouts will be provided to students to quickly revise the themes and gather to the point knowledge for writing precise answers.

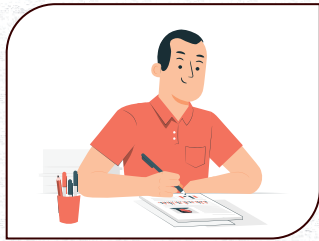

Mentorship

Embark on a guided journey with dedicated mentors who track your progress and provide personalized support. Acting as your friend, philosopher, and guide, they ensure you stay on the right path toward success in your UPSC preparation.

Weekly Mains Test and Evaluation

Mini Test of 10 questions will be conducted every week on themes which have been covered in that particular week. These tests will help you keep your mains preparation on track.

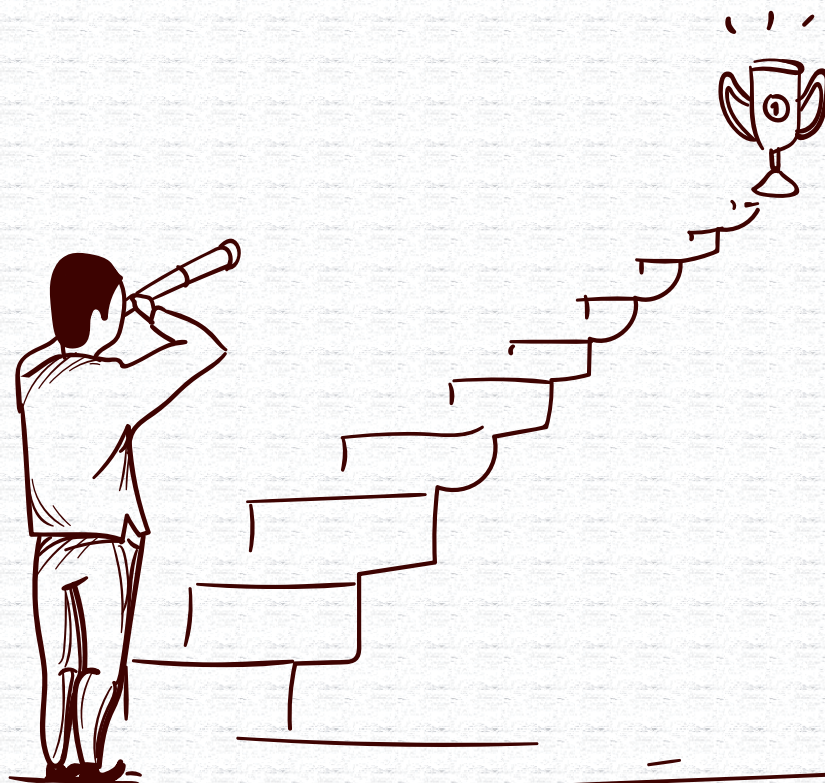

Weekly Prelims Test

Half Length Prelims tests (50 questions) will be conducted every week on the topics which have been covered in the week. These tests will help you keep your prelims preparation on track.

CSAT Classes

Towards the end of the integrated phase, you will be provided with CSAT classes from our expert faculties to help you master the CSAT portion.

At the end of this Phase

You will be equipped with

Thorough understanding of the whole GS syllabus from Prelims and Mains Perspective

350+ GS Themes coverage

200+ Mains questions-answer practice

1000+ Prelims questions practice

150+ Current Affairs topics through weekly current affairs classes
